

Short Biography

Mrs. Lindita Varesi, Economic Advisor of Appeal Chamber

After graduating from the University of Tirana, Faculty of Economy (9.1 /10), Mrs. Lindita Varesi was employed by Raiffeisen Bank S.A., Albania (former Savings Bank), Saranda affiliate where she was appointed Manager of Bank Activities in FOREX.

Mrs. Varesi joined the National Bank of Greece S.A., Albanian Branch in February 2006, where she occupied different positions, developing a successful professional career climaxing as Head of Small Business Lending Team and Credit Risk, Risk Division; Head of Commercial Credit Underwriting Department, Corporate and Commercial Division; Head of Compliance Department, Compliance Division. Mrs. Varesi was professionally trained in Risk Management & Mitigation by the National Bank of Greece S.A., Athens, in Finance Accounting and Banking, Project Financing in Athens and was certified by the House of Training, ATTF Luxembourg, in financial crimes/ AML/CCD and Regulatory Compliance, (very good). Simultaneously with the professional progress, Mrs. Varesi has also successfully completed master studies and was awarded Master in Business Administration (M.B.A.), Master in Finance Accounting & Banking by IUKB (Institut Universitare Kurt Bosch) /Switzerland/UNYT (5.04/6). Mrs. Varesi received the Certificate of Comparability by UK NARICK (The National Recognition Information Centre for the United Kingdom). Mrs. Varesi holds the Doctoral Degree in Economic Science (9.24/10); and is a frequent attendant of different scientific conferences organized either domestically or abroad. Mrs. Varesi has also published a number of scientific papers and essays concerning economic and financial issues of banking and insurance sectors of Albania and Western Balkans.

Mrs. Varesi records an active role in academic life, as lecturer or seminarian by public and private universities operating in Tirana and Durrës. Mrs. Varesi is fluent in English (C1) and Greek. Aspiring to a higher virtues society, Mrs. Varesi joined the Legal Service Unit of Appeal Chamber as Economic Advisor, on February 1, 2018.