

Short Biography

Mrs. Albana Jegeni graduated in 1995 at the "Business Administration" branch of the Economic Faculty, University of Tirana. In 2007 Mrs. Jegeni completed master studies in Public Administration at the Economic Faculty, Tirana University.

22 years of experience in the planning and management of foreign investment in road infrastructure works. Finance officer/manager in various projects funded by the World Bank, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, European Investment Bank, the OPEC, Kuwaiti Funds, and the PHARE Program.

Post-university programs in property evaluation, as well as a number of training courses both in the country and abroad in the management of civil works contracts and consultancy services including budget and financing techniques. Proficiency in English and Italian

Currently, she holds the post of Economic Advisor at the Special Appeals Chamber