

Short Biography

Eni Karagjozi, Economic Advisor

Mrs. Eni Karagjozi graduated in 2007 in the Administration - Business at the Faculty of Economy in the University of Tirana. In 2011, she completed Master's studies in Business Administration (MBA), Entrepreneurship, at the Faculty of Economy in the University of Tirana.

She has work experience of 12 years in the financial sector, in second level banks, such as NBG Albania JSC and American Bank of Investment (ABI Bank). During the last year of university studies, she has been employed part-time in NBG Bank, as an individual loan analyst and later, the same year, she was employed full-time. She served in this position until April 2009, then as a business credit analyst and later as a relationship manager with medium business, until May 2012.

In May 2012, she was appointed as manager for relations with large local and foreign businesses in the division of corporations. From January 2013 - February 2014, she worked as a portfolio manager of large local businesses and foreign ones in the corporate division.

Until October 2014, she was appointed Director of the Department of Analysis of Medium Business and Corporate Loans. From October 2014 to December 2018, she served the Head of the Corporate Clients Division.

During the school year 2007-2008, she was a part-time lecturer on the subject "Human Resources" in the Department of Management, at the Faculty of Economy, University of Tirana.

During her work experience, she has conducted a series of trainings with local and foreign experts on business consultancy, mortgage loan analysis, international trade financing and risk management in lending. She is proficient in English and Italian.

Currently, Mrs. Eni Karagjozi is part of the Legal Service Unit, as Economic Adviser in the Appeal Chamber