

Short Biography

Klediana Rrumbullaku, Economic Advisor

Ms. Klediana Rrumbullaku graduated in 2008 at the Faculty of Economy, University of Tirana. During 2004-2006, she worked for various USAID projects in Albania on Financial Management of Local Government.

During 2008-2009, she worked for the company "InfoSoft System" in the position of Customer Manager, SMEs.

During 2009-2011, she worked in "Emporiki Bank Albania" in the Finance Department, specifically, in the Reporting Sector.

During 2011-2016, she worked for "Credit Agricole Bank Albania" in the Payments Department, specifically in the Sector of Payments Investigation and Account Coordination, Nostro.

During 2016-2017, she held the position of General Administrator at the University College "Luarasi".

During 2017 until January 2018, she has been Member of the Supervisory Board of the "First Investment Society, FAF JSC".

Currently, she holds the position of Economic Adviser in the Appeal Chamber. She is proficient in English and Italian.