

Short Biography

Mrs. Alketa Çeli - Secretary General

Mrs. Alketa Çeli has completed her studies at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Tirana, where she graduated in 1996. She also completed her studies at the Faculty of Law of the University of Tirana, where she graduated in 2003. In 2007, Mrs. Çeli gained the title of “Master in Public Administration”, from the Faculty of Economics of the University of Tirana and the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, USA. She has attended various trainings and specializations organized by the Council of Europe, the International Monetary Fund, the Center of Excellence for Finance and has been for several years an assistant professor at the Faculty of Economics at the University of Tirana in the subjects of Corporate Governance and Human Resource Management.

Mrs. Çeli counts 29 years of professional experience at managerial and leadership levels in the field of finance, budget and human resources, in various institutions in public administration and non-governmental organizations. She has worked for many years in the Judicial Budget Administration Office, in the Ministry of Finance. For the period February 2018 to December 31, 2024, she held the office of the Chancellor in the Institution of Public Commissioners.

Ms. Çeli has been appointed Secretary General of the Special Appeals Chamber since January 1, 2025.